Welcome Letter

Dear Dormitory Students and Parents,

We hope this letter finds you well and that you are enjoying your days of summer vacation before embarking on an exciting new school year at The Hebrew Academy. We would like to take this opportunity to share some important information regarding the dormitory, holiday travel, and the school calendar so that you and your family have ample time to make the appropriate arrangements for the many upcoming holiday events and celebrations.

While living away from home is a new venture for many students and may pose challenges, especially in the beginning, it offers unique opportunities for development in interpersonal relationships, team building and leadership skills, responsibility and independence, and growth in Yiddishkeit and Chassidishkeit. In order to keep focused on our goal for the dormitory, which is to have a safe, respectful, and comfortable environment in which each girl can call the dorm her home away from home, please read the dorm policies carefully. The policies will be strictly enforced; all students are required to participate and contribute positively to the dorm environment.

Communication between parents and school administration is vital for a productive and successful year. Weekly updates on your daughter's progress will be sent via email. Please review these consistently with your daughter and address all concerns and positive feedback.

We look forward to getting to know all of our dorm residents and spend the year with them. We ask all parents to provide accessible (cell) phone numbers and email addresses so that the dorm counselors can communicate easily throughout the year.

The school year begins with mandatory Orientation for all High School students on Tuesday, August 28 from 12:00 - 2:00 p.m. and the first day of school on Wednesday, August 29. Dorm Orientation will be Tuesday evening, August 28. All dorm students are required to be in Long Beach by Monday, August 27. For information concerning airports and transportation please read further.

To welcome the parents and students to the school and the Long Beach community, I will be hosting a meet and greet BBQ at my home 4221 Lime ave. at 6:00 p.m. on Monday evening. Please let me know if you will make it.

We are looking forward to having all students' cooperation in contributing towards an enjoyable, smooth, and efficient year of growth and comfort.

Sincerely,

Rabbi Rapoport

Residence Staff & Support

Rabbi Rapoport and the Dorm Staff work hard to enrich student residence life, cultivate a positive climate in the dorm, and make the dorm a home away from home.

Mrs. Mushka Drihem (323-632-3009) serves as Dorm Mother, along with Ms. Chani Chesney (347-281-1577) as the Dorm Counselor. They will be on hand to offer guidance, provide encouragement and support, and ensure the safety in all aspects to help keep life in the student residence comfortable. In addition, there will be ongoing exciting activities such as, Shabbatons, Shiurim, Farbrengens, birthday celebrations, and excursions in and around Southern California. All girls are expected to be present and have a positive presence and attitude towards dorm functions and extracurricular activities.

Health - Physical & Emotional

Please include ALL necessary information, both physical and emotional pertaining to each girl, as this can tremendously benefit the student as well as Dorm Staff and Administration in giving her the best care possible. *All information will remain confidential and will be shared only as necessary and in order to best serve students.

Physical

Please ensure that the Medical Health Forms are properly completed and submitted to the office. Although we hope that it will never be needed, please fill out the Medical Form and Health Release attached to this booklet. Your daughter will not be allowed in the dorm without this.

Please let the school know if there are any medical conditions such as, allergies or asthma. Parents must inform the school of any prescription drugs. Necessary medication, prescription pain and psychotropic medications must be registered with the Dorm Counselor. A decision will be made whether the student can dispense the medicine herself or if it will be administered through her dorm counselor. If a student is found taking medication that the school was unaware of, the student's stay at the dorm will be reconsidered.

Emotional

The emotional wellbeing of your daughter is of the utmost importance.

To ensure a healthy emotional, social and physical environment we offer the following opportunities for our students. First, we are fortunate to have a therapist from Jewish Federation Family Services on our campus two times a week. She is available to meet with your daughter free of charge.

Second, we hold mandatory meetings periodically to discuss issues. At the meetings students are expected to be on time and listen attentively and respectfully to the dorm staff and their peers. The girls are expected to work together to keep a pleasant environment in the Dorm throughout the year.

Additionally, our Director of Student Life, Mrs. Rochel Leah Stillerman is available on campus for students daily. She works alongside the Dorm Mother and Dorm Counselor to ensure that the needs of the students are being met.

Thank you in advance for your ongoing support and partnership to help your daughter have a healthy and successful school year.

The emotional wellbeing of your daughter is of the utmost importance. To ensure a healthy emotional environment we hold periodic mandatory meetings to discuss issues. At the meetings students are expected to be on time and listen attentively and respectfully to the dorm staff and their peers. The girls will be given the opportunity to express their “triumphs” and “trials” for the week and work together to keep a pleasant environment in the Dorm. Our Director of Student Life, Mrs. Rochel Leah Stillerman is available on campus for students daily and in constant contact with the Dorm Mother and Dorm Counselor.

Built-in Social Life

Sharing a home with other young women means that a friend is always across the hall or right next door, or even in your room. You’ll get to know each other. The residence is always buzzing with events, headed by our amazing counselors. Of course, fellow students, non dorm occupants, are welcome as long as they follow dorm staff rules.

Dorm extra-curricular activities and outings are part of the dorm experience. Students are expected and encouraged to participate.

Respect

The privilege of living in the dormitory is prefaced by complete respect for the following:

Dorm Staff – This includes following all dorm staff instructions in the utmost respectful manner. In order to keep proper decorum there must be respect for authority.

Self – Sharing a room and home with others encompasses a responsibility for self-respect. One must keep her items and designated living areas organized, clean and neat. Proper physical hygiene, showering and washing clothing often, if not daily, are instrumental to your own health and to those around you. Staff will work with anyone who is not showering, keeping areas clean, etc. as it affects others.

Others – It is incumbent that you treat others with common courtesy (“V’ahavta L’reyacha Kamocho/ Love your fellow Jew as you love yourself”). This includes talking to and regarding each other with only kindness and respect. There will be no degrading or bullying others in talk or action. No inappropriate or foul language will be tolerated. Each girl must respect and give space to the property and possessions of others, which includes asking before touching or borrowing anything from others. Out of respect of privacy, please make sure to knock before entering anyone's room.

Rules and Regulations

Communication between parents and school administration is vital for a productive and successful year. Weekly updates on your daughter's progress will be sent via email. Please review these consistently with your daughter and address all concerns and positive feedback.

Any rules not adhered to, either in action or spirit, will be reported to Rabbi Rapoport who will handle infractions accordingly. Staying in the dorm is a privilege and The Hebrew Academy reserves the right to revoke anyone's right to stay in the dorm if necessary.

Personal Responsibilities

The administration reserves the right of decision in assigning rooms or canceling residence contracts. Suggestions are accepted but aren't guaranteed. Exchanges and transfers of rooms will be permitted only with the approval of the administration and dorm counselor.

Sick - If a girl is sick, she will need to contact her parents who will then speak to Rabbi Rapoport before school begins to determine a plan of action. If necessary, she will be seen by a doctor or taken to Urgent Care with a dorm staff member. No student will be allowed to stay in the dorm without their parents contacting Rabbi Rapoport.

Dorm Cleanliness - In order to maintain dormitory cleanliness, each girl will receive a chore she must do daily. The internet will not be turned on until all chores are completed. In addition, each girl must contribute to the general cleanliness of the dormitory. This is a home for the girls; it must be treated and respected like one. All girls must abide by the rules of cleanliness and hygiene posted in the dorm. The kitchen is a shared space so it must stay clean and organized at all times. Girls will also be given a small job in preparation for Shabbos.

Bus - The dorm counselors will wake up the students only once in the mornings. It is the student's responsibility to make it to the bus on time. If a student misses the bus, she will have to find a ride or come with the dorm counselor, and will have to report to the office upon arriving late to school. Excessive tardiness may result in detention and could affect overall GPA.

Respect for your neighbors - The dormitory is located in a two family home and neighboring homes on each side. We have neighbors who are members of the Long Beach community. Please be sensitive to the neighbors; there should be no excessive loud noises, screaming, jumping, or dancing.

After School Hours

Off Dorm Premises - Not abiding by these rules will result in early curfew until proven reliable.

The dormitory curfew is 10:00 PM.

- Signing out
 - For the safety of all girls, the dorm staff are required to know the location of all dorm occupants at all times. Before leaving the dorm to go to a local area here in Long Beach, each girl MUST clearly print their name and destination on the sign out sheet. If a student decides to leave to another location other than what she first told the dorm counselor, she MUST call or text for permission. If dorm occupants request to leave the Long Beach area, permission must be obtained in advance. This is a safety concern and will be strongly enforced. It is imperative to know where each dorm occupant is at all times. Not abiding by these rules will result in not allowing the student to leave the dorm premise until proven reliable.
- Cell phones
 - It is important when off dorm premises that girls must always have their cell phone readily accessible to answer the dorm staff calls at all times. NOT answering the dorm counselor is NOT an option.
- After dark
 - There is no walking alone ANYWHERE once it is dark out. Permission to walk in the vicinity of the neighborhood after dark must be obtained by the Dorm Counselor.
- Babysitting jobs
 - Girls must be back in dorm by curfew. If for whatever reason one is not back by curfew, she must call the dorm counselor to let her know why. The dorm staff will then make a decision if it is acceptable or not. The only way the dorm counselor will allow anyone to babysit for longer is if the family she is babysitting will drive her back to the dorm. Under no circumstances may she walk home alone.
 - Any babysitting or tutoring jobs should not interfere with schoolwork, Bnos programming or dorm related activities and meetings.

Lights Out/Bedtime

The dormitory winds down and goes “silent” at 11:00 pm. We expect students to be in their room with lights out. This will provide a good night’s sleep to ensure an academically successful new day. Girls will be asked to turn in their devices if curfew and lights out are abused.

Travel

RideShare

Transportation for individual outings for dorm girls is not provided. Rideshares such as Uber and Lyft may be used under certain conditions. To ensure the safety in use of these outside transportation options, girls must adhere to the following procedure:

- The buddy system is required whenever using rideshare options.
 - Specifically, all underclassman (9th and 10th graders) cannot use these rideshares unless accompanied by an upperclassman (11th or 12th graders).
- Location of rideshare must be sent to the Dorm Counselor both before entering the car and exiting the car.
- If these conditions are not met or abused, further use of such transportation is suspended.
- If parents prefer their daughter not go in a rideshare or have specific requirements, please let us know.

Airport

Every effort will be made to accommodate rides for flights coming into or leaving from Long Beach Airport.

There is a local female driver in the community and a reliable airport shuttle service that can be called for a nominal fee.

Halachic Standards & Expectations

TZNIUS/Modesty in thought, speech, and action (dress):

Dress: Collar Bone, knees, ankles, and elbows must be covered in the dorm common area and outside the dorm residence at all times. Skirts must reach below the knee while sitting and socks must cover the ankle bone and toes at all times. Not adhering to these rules will result in the dorm counselor requesting the student to change, as a first infraction. Numerous or repetitive requests may result in further disciplinary action.

Pajamas may only be worn around the dorm past 8:00 PM. No tank tops or shorts can be worn around the dorm at any time.

Social Media: Use of social media should be appropriate and based on the Jewish values and principles of the Hebrew Academy. Students are representatives of the school and are expected to portray the school in a positive manner at all times. Posting inappropriate items on social media is not acceptable.

Computers: The school provides a working printer in the dorm for students to print homework assignments. Any laptops, tablets, and/or phones girls wish to bring MUST be registered. Any devices not registered will be confiscated. Internet will be shut off at 10:45 PM. There is a wifi tracking device to detect inappropriate misuse of the internet. We reserve the right to restrict internet use and/or confiscate devices should need be.

Music: Only Jewish music can be heard in the common area and individual rooms. Anything else will require headphones.

Videos: Use of internet is a privilege and is appropriated based on proper use. Any videos, movies, or TV should only be viewed in the common area and with the approval of the appropriate authority.

Shabbos

All halachos of keeping Shabbos must be followed consistently. Any breach of any standard regarding Shabbos will result in staying in the dorm Motzei Shabbos. If this is a recurring issue, further consequences will be enforced, with possible consideration of student's stay in the dorm.

Phones must be placed in the cell phone box before candle lighting.

Girls MUST light Shabbos candles BEFORE the 18 minutes.

Shabbos decorum - Each shabbos has its own set of rules and expectations. All girls must attend the Shabbos meals on time and be dressed appropriately for Shabbos. All girls are expected to behave with the spirit of Shabbos and to participate with any school organized events on Shabbos.

Shul - Davening starts at 10:00 AM - All girls are encouraged to be in Shul by 11:15 AM for Torah Reading. Bnos will initiate incentive programs for those who attend.

In the dorm there is a rotating schedule of Shabbosim referred to as, "In" Shabbos, "Shliach" Shabbos, "Off" Shabbos, and "Long Beach" Shabbos.

- "In" Shabbos - This Shabbos the whole dorm is together as a dorm family! Shabbos meals will be spent eating together in Long Beach, where we encourage the girls to give D'verei Torah.
- "Shliach" Shabbos - This Shabbos the girls leave the dorm and experience Shabbos in different Chabad Houses in Southern California.
- "Off" Shabbos - This Shabbos the dorm is closed and the girls can make their own Shabbos plans in approved places. There are many warm and friendly families who would love to host dorm students. Please let the Dorm Counselor know if you would like to be placed somewhere for Shabbos. Permission will be granted to leave early for transportation purposes as long as student is in "good standing" and receives permission from Administration.
- "Long Beach" Shabbos - This Shabbos is a Shabbos of your choosing. The dorm is open to those who wish to stay and meals will be coordinated by the Dorm Counselor, by various homes in Long Beach. Or, girls can choose to spend Shabbos elsewhere provided they do not have to leave school early on Friday and have obtained permission from Rabbi Rapoport.

For “Off” and “Long Beach” Shabbosim, prior to finalizing Shabbos plans, girls MUST fill out a detailed form and give it to the Dorm Counselor. Location forms and means of transportation must be given to the dorm counselor by Wednesday evening at 8:00 PM. The Dorm Mother will contact the people you will be staying by and confirm our standards will be met. If the Dorm Mother cannot reach them, you will NOT be allowed to go. Plans cannot be changed after Wednesday evening, for students are accounted for then by gracious hosts who will be expecting them.

Motzei Shabbos

Any girl going away from the dorm for Shabbos must be back in the dormitory by Motzei Shabbos unless specific permission is pre arranged by Wednesday. If a student wishes to spend the night away from where she was for Shabbos, she must request permission by Rabbi Rapoport in advance. This excludes any girl going home for the weekend. All girls must be back by 7:00 PM on Sunday, without exception. Please let the dorm counselor know if you wish to eat dinner in the dorm on Sunday.

Kashrus

Food is provided for the dorm girls for Breakfast, Lunch, and Dinner. For breakfast, there is hot/cold cereal, almond and dairy milk, bread, and eggs. Lunch is provided from the school cafeteria. Dinner is cooked by the school cook and brought to the dorm each evening by the dorm counselor. In addition, the dorm will be fully stocked with basics at all times. There is one public refrigerator for communal food for all to use and one private refrigerator for all girls to store personal items. Please ensure your personal food items are labeled clearly and cleaned out regularly. Food that remains untouched for one week will be thrown out.

There are appliances, dishes and cookware for all dorm girls to use. The dorm kitchen standard of kashrus is to be upheld. Everything in the kitchen is labeled clearly by color or sticker. Anyone not complying with the standard will lose the right to use the kitchen. Only Cholov and Pas Yisroel food items are allowed in the kitchen. Food items must have an accepted Kosher symbol on food found in or eaten out of the dorm.

Students are only allowed to eat at establishments that are strictly Kosher and approved by dorm staff. Certain eateries in Los Angeles may deemed Kosher but do not uphold to our level of Kashrus and should not be eaten in. Failure to comply with this rule will result in the student’s stay at the dorm reconsidered.

Dates to keep in mind

The administration has made a concerted effort this school year to create a calendar that accommodates student travel time which will ensure that students do not miss valuable instructional time during the holidays. As a result, students will be required to attend all designated school days this year.

There will be no exceptions to this policy even in the event that the airline tickets may be more economical earlier or later than the above dates. In fact, this is an opportunity to impress upon your daughter the importance of school "Seder". Consequences will be enforced for students who leave earlier and return later without specific permission.

Please review the attached calendar and make every effort to plan your travel now to avoid scheduling conflicts in the months to come.
